The Edward F. Kenney Player Development Award and the George Digby Scouting Award

Early in the this year's Red Sox spring training camp Executive Vice President and General Manager Dan Duquette announced that the Red Sox have instituted two new organization awards, the George Digby Scouting Award and the Edward F. Kenney Player Development Award. Each year Duquette will announce the winners of these special recognition awards which will be given to honor those Red Sox baseball operations personnel who personify the exemplary contributions that the awards' namesakes are well known for. Digby and Kenney were long-time employees of the Red Sox and are special members of the Red Sox family. A special plaque bearing the winners names will be displayed at both Fenway Park and the minor league complex in Ft. Myers.

"These awards were created to acknowledge the dedication, hard work and success of both George Digby and Ed Kenney," said Duquette. "They represent the very best people that have worked for the Red Sox and their work ethic and accomplishments are a model for all of us who work in baseball today."

The Edward F. Kenney Player Development Award is named after retired Red Sox baseball executive Edward F. Kenney Sr. who spent over 45 years in the Red Sox organization, most of which was spent in the player development area of the operation. After graduating from Boston College and serving a stint in the army, Kenney joined the Red Sox as a shortstop in 1946 and was converted to a pitcher, but his career was cut short by an arm injury. That same year, while the Red Sox were battling for the American League pennant, Ed took a job in the Red Sox ticket office. Two years later Ed began working in the minor league department as the assistant farm director responsible for, among other duties, coordinating tryouts for the team. In 1966 Ed was promoted to director of minor league operations and in 1978 he became vice president of baseball operations, the title he held until his retirement after the 1991 season. During his years with the organization, Ed was responsible for signing and grooming many of the Red Sox players that helped bring Boston three World Series appearances ('67, '75 & '86). Five of the seven starters in the 1986 World Series games were signed and developed under Kenney (Roger Clemens, Oil Can Boyd, Bruce Hurst, Al Nipper & Bobby Ojeda).

The winner of the 1994 Edward F. Kenny Player Development Award is DeMarlo Hale. Hale, a former Red Sox minor league player is beginning his first season as manager at Battle Creek in the Midwest League, the new single-A affiliate of the Red Sox (replacing Lynchburg). Last year, DeMarlo completed his second season as manager of the Ft. Lauderdale Red Sox after being named to the position in January, 1993. In 1994, the Red Sox Florida State L. team, based in Sarasota, finished with an overall 69-64 record. DeMarlo led his squad to a second half championship in the West Div. with a 43-25 record (.632). Before being named to manage Ft. Lauderdale in 1993, Hale was a member of the New Britain minor league coaching staff. DeMarlo originally was the Red Sox 18th pick (17th round) in the 1983 June draft. He spent four years in the club's minor league system and had his best season in 1984 when he was named to the Carolina L. All-Star team. He hit .286 as a first-year pro for Elmira in 1983 and .260 and .261 at New Britain in 1985-86. Hale attended Southern U. A & M (Baton Rouge, LA) and was signed by Sox scout Ed Scott, June 17, 1983.

"Ed Kenney exemplifies the consummate player development executive," said Red Sox Director of Field Operations Bob Schaefer. "The dedication and hard work that he displayed during his many years with the Red Sox can be seen reflected in the work and success of DeMarlo Hale."

The George Digby Scouting Award is named after the Red Sox "scouting king" that began discovering baseball talent for the Red Sox in 1944. Over the years he signed numerous players who have in the past and continue to have successful careers. Some of those players include; Gregg Blosser, Wade Boggs, Tom Bolton, Mike Greenwell, Dalton Jones, Bob Montgomery and Jody Reed. Digby won the Scout of the Year Award in 1985, the first year the honor was given. The Scout of Year is recognized for his excellence in scouting, years of service and professionalism in the performance of his job.

The winner of the 1994 George Digby Scout of the Year Award is Buzzy Bowers. After receiving his Masters Degree in Administration of Athletics from Boston University, Buzzy became the director of physical education and athletics at Wayland High School in MA. In 1960 he began his major league scouting career with the Philadelphia Phillies organization. In 1962 Buzzy became a scout for the Los Angeles Dodgers, responsible for scouting talent in the New England area. He had been a scout for the Dodgers organization for 30 years when he joined the Red Sox in 1992. He is currently responsible for scouting talent for the Red Sox in the New England and New York area.

"George Digby is recognized unanimously in the baseball world as the top role model for all scouts and not only is he an exemplary scout, but he's an outstanding Christian individual," stated Director of Scouting Wayne Britton. "Buzzy's long and fruitful scouting career reflects many those outstanding traits found in George Digby."

The announcement of the inception of these awards and their presentations were made at a staff barbecue at the City of Palms Park on February 19, 1995. George Digby best expressed the significance of these awards, with his usual sense of humor, upon learning that an award was created in his name. He said, "I am truly moved by this honor; most often a person wouldn't receive such tremendous recognition until they were dead."

THE MANAGER

#44

Kevin Kennedy

Height: 6'-3" Weight: 220

Blue eyes Brown hair

Bats and Throws: Right

Born: May 26, 1954, Los Angeles, CA

Resides: Las Colinas, TX

On October 18, 1994 Kevin Kennedy agreed to a two-year contract with the Red Sox and became Boston's 40th manager.

Kennedy spent the 1993 and 1994 seasons as the skipper of the Texas Rangers. In his two years with Texas, he compiled a 138-138 (.500) record. During last year's strike-shortened season, Kevin's Rangers struggled with poor pitching and weak defensive play in the field, but still managed to lead the A.L. West with a sub-.500 record of 52-62 (.456). Offensively, the

'94 Rangers ranked 4th in the A.L. with a .280 (1114-3983) average, while the pitching staff ranked second to last with a 5.45 ERA. Among A.L. teams, Texas ranked last in fielding with a .976 percentage. Despite Texas' shortcomings, Kennedy still kept his squad at the top of the A.L. West. In 1993 Kevin guided Texas to an 86-76 record, the 4th most victories in Ranger history and the most wins ever for a Texas manager in his first season. Among first year major league managers, only San Francisco's Dusty Baker (103) had more victories in 1993. He finished 4th in the A.L. Manager of the Year voting by the BBWAA and was named DFW Area Manager/Coach of the Year by the Dallas All Sports Association.

Before joining Texas, Kennedy worked in the Montreal Expos organization under then Vice President and General Manager Dan Duquette. On October 31, 1991, he was appointed to the position of Director of Minor League Field Operations for the Expos and served in that role until May 22, 1992 when he was named Montreal's major league dugout coach under new manager Felipe Alou.

Kennedy served as a manager in the Los Angeles Dodgers minor league system from 1984-91 and compiled a 533-373 record, a .588 winning percentage, in eight seasons. During that time, Kevin won one overall league championship, finished in first place five times in the first or second half of the season, and compiled no worse than his league's second best overall record in any season. In 1989-91 he managed Albuquerque (AAA) in the Pacific Coast League and had the league's best overall record in all three years: 80-62 in 1989, 91-51 in 1990, and 80-58 in 1991. After winning the league championship in 1990, Kevin was named both "Baseball America" and the Pacific Coast League's Manager of the year. As San Antonio's skipper in 1988 (AA), his squad produced the Texas League's second best overall record (73-60). His Bakersfield (A) club was 78-65 and second in both halves during the 1987 California League season. Kevin spent his first three years as a manager leading Great Falls (Rookie) in the Pioneer League from 1984-86. During that span, he established league records for team wins with 54 and a winning percentage at .771. He was also named the Pioneer League Manager of the Year in 1985. In 1983 he began his professional coaching/managing career as a catching instructor at Lodi in the California League.

During four off-seasons, Kevin also managed in winter ball; three seasons (1985-86, 1986-87, 1987-88) at Santurce in Puerto Rico and one season (1988-89) at Licey in the Dominican Republic.

During his tenure with the Dodgers, Kennedy managed the following current major league players: Dave Hansen, Carlos

As a player, Kennedy caught for eight seasons in the Baltimore, St. Louis, and Los Angeles organizations from 1976-83. Kevin is one of the few current major league managers who never played in the majors. In 1982 he was the backup catcher at Albuquerque and in 1981-82 he played in 13 games in the St. Louis system. In the spring of 1978 Kennedy was a non-roster invitee for Baltimore's spring camp, and in the spring of 1979, he was on the Orioles' 40-man roster. His best season as a player was 1978 at Rochester. He set career highs in most offensive categories, threw out 44% of would-be base stealers and was selected as an International league All-Star. Kennedy began his pro career at Bluefield in 1976 and had made it to Rochester (AAA) in only a season and a half.

Kennedy attended San Diego State University and played varsity baseball for three seasons. In 1976 he was second in the Pacific Coast Athletic Association in batting with a .409 average and led the conference hitting .416 in 1975. He was selected second team all-PCAA both seasons. Kevin graduated from Taft High School in Woodland Hills, CA in 1972. At Taft he played baseball and basketball, and he was a two-time baseball team MVP and second team all-Los Angeles City in 1972.

Kevin earned a B.S. in business administration from California State University at Northridge.

Brown eyes

Black hair

Bats: Left

Throws: Right

Born: July 22, 1949, Grand Forks, ND

Resides: Clay Center, KS

Married: Patty Barrett

Children: Bridgette & Timmy

Tim Johnson joined the Red Sox from the Montreal Expos where he served as the major league bench coach under Manager Felipe Alou during the 1993 and 1994 seasons. In 1991-92 he was the Expos M.L. advance scout, responsible for submitting scouting reports to the coaching staff prior to a series. He joined the Montreal organization in 1990 as manager at Indianapolis (AAA). During the past five years, Tim managed several teams during the off-season. This past winter he guided his Escogido Lions to the Dominican League playoffs. Following the 1993 season, Tim managed Tempe in the Arizona Fall League. He managed Hermosillo in the Mexican Winter League during the 1989-92 off-seasons, reaching the Caribbean World Series in 1989-90 and winning the league championship with a 46-23 record.

Before joining the Expos, Tim worked in the Dodgers organization. In 1989 he managed Bakersfield (A) to a California League championship. In 1987-88 he was the skipper at Great Falls (Rookie) in the Pioneer League and was named Manager of the Year both seasons, while winning the league title in 1988. Tim joined L.A. in 1982 and served as a scout through the '86 season. He retired as a player following the '79 season and worked as a scout for the Central Scouting Bureau from 1980-82.

Johnson played seven major league seasons, predominantly as a shortstop, in the American League with Milwaukee (1973-78) and Toronto (1978-79). He began his professional career at Bakersfield (A) in 1968 after signing with the Dodgers as a free agent in 1967 out of high school. At Bakersfield in 1968 he led California League shortstops in chances, assists and double plays. On May 19, he went 6-for-6 with five singles and a double against Modesto to become the ninth player in California League history to have six hits in a game. In 1969-70 he played at Albuquerque (AA) and during the 1970 season, he earned a Silver Glove as the best fielding shortstop in all of the minors after leading the Texas League with a .978 fielding pct. On April 24, 1973 he was traded to the Brewers for Rick Auerbach and made his M.L. debut in a Milwaukee uniform. In 1973 Johnson set personal highs in most offensive categories and led A.L. shortstops in putouts with 253. After missing most of the 1975 season due to injuries, he was named Comeback Player of the Year by the Milwaukee BBWAA. On April 27, 1978 he was traded to the Toronto Blue Jays for infielder Tim Nordbrook. After two seasons as a reserve player for the Blue Jays (1978-79), Tim announced his retirement.

He attended Montebello High School in California, where he was an All-American basketball player. Tim and his wife, Patty, have two children, Bridgette and Timmy. They became grandparents for the first time during the 1993 season. Tim's brother Sandy, formerly a minor league infielder and manager, is currently an assistant general manager of the Texas Rangers.

Bats: Left    Throws: Right
Born: April 7, 1951, Stockton, CA
Resides: Stockton, CA
Married: Rebecca King
Children: Amy & Clover

This is Dave's first year as the Red Sox third base coach. He comes northeast to Boston from Texas, where last year he completed his seventh year as the major league third base coach and his 12th season overall with the organization. He originally joined the Rangers in 1983 as the manager at Tri-Cities of the Northwest League. In 1984 he served as the Rangers minor league infield instructor. Dave was promoted to manager of Texas' AAA affiliate at Oklahoma City of the American Association for the 1985-86 seasons. During the 1985 season, he guided Oklahoma City to a first-place finish in the Western Division with an overall record of 79-63 and was named Manager of the Year with Louisville's Jim Fregosi. His '85 team lost to Louisville in the A.A. Championship Series. In 1986 his 89ers finished with a 63-79 record. In the last month of the 1986 season, Dave joined the Texas major league staff, and in 1987, he became the Rangers' "eye in the sky," positioning defenses from the press box during the game. In 1988 he was named M.L. third base coach, a position he held through the 1994 season.

Dave was chosen by Cleveland in the third round of the 1973 June draft, and spent all eight seasons as an infielder in the Indians' organization from 1973-80. He was well known for his defensive skills at second base. He led the International League in fielding pct. in 1977 (.987) and the Pacific Coast League in 1978 (.984). Dave was the I.L.'s All-Star second baseman in 1976 and 1977 and won the Silver Glove Award from The Sporting News in 1977. He was promoted to the major league club at the beginning of September in '77 and played regularly at second during the final week of the season, hitting safely in five straight games.

Dave attended California Poly State University in San Luis Obispo, CA, and was named the school's Athlete of the Year in 1973. He graduated in 1969 from Franklin High School in Stockton, CA, and was All-League in baseball and basketball. Dave also played amateur baseball in the Alaskan League and

Hitting Coach

Height: 6'-2"      Weight: 210

Brown eyes      Black hair

Bats and Throws: Right

Born: March 8, 1953, Anderson, SC

Resides: North Andover, MA

Married: Corine Gillard

Children: Chauncy Brandon & Carissa Jacinda

Jim was promoted to major league hitting coach on February 18, 1995 after spending three seasons as the Red Sox roving minor league hitting instructor. The eight-time all-star is among the top five career Red Sox hitters in nine offensive categories and compiled a .298 avg. in 2,089 games for the Red Sox from 1974-89. Rice slammed 382 HR among his 2,452 hits, along with 373 doubles and 79 triples.

Jim hit 20 or more HR 11 times and drove in 100 runs eight times. He is the only player to ever have three straight 35-HR, 200-hit years (1977-79). In 1983 he had 21 assists (2nd in the A.L.), the only Sox outfielder since 1944 to reach 20. He hit 3 HR in one game twice, Aug. 29, 1977 vs. Oakland and Aug. 29, 1983 in Toronto.

Rice was the club's 1st draft pick in the 1971 June draft after he won 10 letters in baseball, football, basketball and track for Westside and Hanna H.S.'s in Anderson. In 1974 he won the International L. triple crown (.337, 25, 93) at Pawtucket and joined the Sox to stay that mid-August. He was also named Minor L. Player of the Year and Int. L. MVP and Rookie of the Year. Rice helped Boston win the 1975 A.L. pennant with a .309, 22-HR, 102-RBI rookie season. In 1978 he was the A.L. MVP as he led the majors with 46 HR, 139 RBI, 15 triples, 406 TB, 213 H and a .600 slugg. pct. He is the only A.L. player to attain 400 TB since 1937 and the only player to lead either league outright in HR, triples and RBI the same season. Rice led the A.L. in TB 3 straight years (1977-79) to tie Ted Williams and Ty Cobb for the league record. He had four 200-hit seasons, and in 1986 was 3rd in the MVP voting after an excellent .324 avg. with 200 H, 20 HR and 110 RBI in 157 games as the Red Sox again won the A.L. pennant.

Starrette joined the Red Sox as the major league pitching coach. He comes to Boston with 34 years of professional baseball experience, including 14 years as a major league pitching coach.

He has been with seven different organizations as a player, coach and instructor. For the past three years (1992-94), Herm was with the Montreal Expos as Director of Minor League Field Operations under then General Manager Dan Duquette. Duquette hired Starrette on May 22, 1992, to replace Kevin Kennedy, who was named bench coach under Manager Felipe Alou. Herm began his coaching career as a minor league pitching instructor for the Baltimore Orioles organization from 1967-73. He served as a major league pitching coach from 1974 to 1988 with Atlanta (1974-76), San Francisco, twice (1977-78 & 1983-84), Philadelphia (1979-81), Milwaukee (1985-86), Chicago Cubs (1987) and Baltimore (1988). He was also the Brewers' Coordinator of Player Development in 1982.

Starrette played his entire professional career in the Baltimore Orioles organization. He was a starter early in his career and completed nearly one-half of his starts from 1958-62. He signed as a free agent on May 31, 1958 and played his first two seasons with Aberdeen (Class "C"). In his first season ('58) he went the distance in a 17-inning game that ended in a 1-1 tie against Gaylord Perry, who also went the distance. In 1959 at Aberdeen, he won 17 games and pitched complete games in 16 of them. Herm became exclusively a relief pitcher in 1962 with Elmira (A) and during that year he won 14 games, saved 19 (unofficially, saves were not part of the official record until '69), and set an Eastern League record with 61 appearances while compiling a 2.65 ERA. He made his major league debut with the Orioles during the 1963 season. Herm split the 1964 season between Baltimore and Rochester (AAA). During the '64 season at Rochester, he had a 1.96 ERA in 30 apps. and pitched 11.2 scoreless innings over four playoff apps. to lead the Red Wings to the International League championship. He pitched at the major league level in parts of the 1963-65 seasons. The 1966 season with Rochester was Starrette's last year as a player.

Herm graduated from Cool Spring High School in Cleveland, NC in 1956 and pitched in all of his school's games in four years there. He was offered a basketball scholarship to Wake Forest, but he attended Lenoir Rhyne College in Hickory, NC. Herm's late brother, George, pitched 14 years in professional baseball.

Frank White, Jr.
First Base Coach

Height: 5'-11"    Weight: 185
Brown eyes    Black hair
Bats and Throws: Right
Born: September 4, 1950,
Greenville, MS
Resides: Overland Park, KS
Married: Gladys
Children: Frank III, Adrienne,
Terrance & Courtney

Frank is the Red Sox first base coach for the second straight year. He was manager of the Gulf Coast Rookie League Red Sox in 1992, but was forced to leave the club towards the end of the season to return home due to illness in his family. He was named Gulf Coast manager in November of '91 when Felix Maldonado was promoted to manager of Winter Haven in the Florida State League. His '92 Gulf Coast Red Sox finished 18-41 (.305). In January 1995 White participated in a series of European clinics leading groups of Major League Baseball International instructors in Slovenia, Czech Republic and Sweden on the fundamentals of baseball and softball.

White had an outstanding career playing his entire major league stint with the Kansas City Royals from 1973-90. He won an amazing eight Gold Gloves as the Royals' second baseman and hit .255 in 2,324 major league games (2nd most for K.C. to G. Brett) with 407 doubles, 58 triples, 160 HR and 886 RBI. His 2,006 hits are also 2nd only to Brett. He played in five All-Star Games, six A.L.C.S (was MVP in 1980) and two World Series (1980 and 1985).

He was the first graduate of the experimental Royals Academy to be invited to the M.L. spring training camp with the Royals in 1973. He began his pro career as a SS at Sarasota in 1971 and led the Gulf Coast League in SB and fielding pct. On June 12, 1973 he made his M.L. debut at SS vs. Baltimore after being recalled June 11 when Fred Patek was injured. He didn't play 2B until his 16th game, June 27 at Oakland.

Frank graduated from Lincoln H.S. in K.C. where he played basketball and football. Lincoln H.S. did not have a baseball team so White played Connie Mack, Ban Johnson and Casey Stengel League baseball. In 1985 the Stengel League was renamed the "Frank White League."
